Renovate or Detonate

High on the top of the hill with views and breezes this cheap little treasure can be transformed with a little hard work into something special.

Consisting of 3 good sized bedrooms upstairs plus an office or sunroom. Open-plan kitchen, dining & lounge with a huge back deck looking over your back garden. The main bathroom is in need of renovation.

Downstairs is a huge studio apartment (as with many on the coast, to the best of our knowledge we believe this area is not Council approved)- providing a fully functional living area or teenagers retreat. The area includes it's own laundry, bathroom, kitchenette and large open plan living, with separate bedroom area.

The home has 1.5 kw of solar panels, fans throughout & is air-conditioned upstairs & downstairs. Dual carport accommodation.

Don't get me wrong this home needs plenty of work but with a little elbow grease you could transform into something special.
