46 School Rd, Yandina

Unique In Style & Location - Classic Qlder

Full of old fashioned flavour and built 150 years ago this classic High set Queenslanders is an original homestead of Yandina and is ready & waiting for its new family to enjoy. The current owners fell in love with the character & charm this property gives and has been renovated to delight. Three bedrooms upstairs with the main complete with walk in robe. Lovely bright sunroom at the front of the house plus a separate air-conditioned lounge and eat in kitchen. The kitchen opens up onto the 5 metre x 6 metre under covered outdoor verandah looking over the beautiful country gardens. This is defiantly the place to relax and enjoy an afternoon wine. Timber external stairs off the back verandah take you to the separate sleep out complete with pot belly stove great for guests or the teenager ready to fly the coop. 6" floor boards throughout and tiled in the bathroom. The kitchen has a gas cook-top and oven, dishwasher and the old nook where the combustion stove used to be. Breakfast bar & servery with large stained glass push out windows open up onto the back verandah. The bathroom has been delightfully renovated with claws foot bath and walk in shower. Downstairs has a separate sunken lounge with built-in teak cupboards. Plenty of storage under the house which is completely concreted their is also a separate toilet downstairs and the laundry.

Location wise, only a short stroll to Yandina town only one neighbour and the C & K Kindy on the other side which is dead quiet after 3pm and on the weekends and backs onto the tropical gardens of the Ginger Factory.
